It may be well here to answer objections we have heard made to public entertainments given by the ladies in support of the Benevolent Society. We have considered it desirable to put the society upon a more substantial basis, by asking annual subscriptions. To this end an article was published in your paper some weeks since. The County Commissioners have lished in your paper some weeks since, setting forth this plan, and asking that in taken an appeal in the Scioto Bridge case, order to save the mortification and labor of personal applications, names and contribu-tions be sent to the President of the socie ty. No notice being taken of this, personal appeals were made to a few. In some cases the response was cheerful, others were in-terested, but were not prepared to subscribe now, and others were not willing to promise for more than one year. This was, stealing, three years each.

Mysterious Child Murder. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16. The mysterious child murder last week has not been unravelled. The inquest was continued to-day. A girl testified that on the night of the murder she saw a man carrying and trying to quiet a child. She de-scribed the child and man. The former no doubt was the murderer. She says on Sun-day night she saw the same man again in the street, and can identify him if brought before her. She says he wore false whiskers, as a portion of them fell off as he was carrying the child. Other girls testify as to having seen a man carrying a child on the night of the murder. All witnesses agree in describing him.

Application for New Trial for Whalen. OTTAWA, September 1d. Application for a new trial in the case of Whalen will be made to the Judges at Toronto in November. The ground on which the application will be made is that the Judge, in the trial, refused to allow chal lenges of iurors before preparatory chal-lenges were exhausted. Prominent lawyers think the ground is a good and sub-Biffe Tournament.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16. The rifle tournament opened at La Pra-rie yesterday. About 15,000 volunteers are encamped there. There are four buildred entries for the first match. The tournanent will last ten days.

The Provincial exhibiton was op ned yesterday by Lieut. Governor Belleau. Red River Country.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16. With a view of relieving the starving opulation of the Red river settlement, the overnment has decided to expend a con-iderable sum in the construction of Fort Garry, at the opening of the up road to Red river. Workmen are to receive provisions in part payment of wages. An ex-perienced agent proceeds to Chicago forth-with to procure supplies. Subscriptions are also being received in various cities in the province for the relief of the distressed inhabitants of the Red river country.

Hon. George L. Converse Will address the Seymour and Blair Club at Pleasant Valley, on Monday evening, September 21st.
